ANDREW A. NEUMAN FUNERAL AT WOODSIDE HELD THURSDAY

The funeral of Andrew A. Neuman, who died at a sanitarium at Belmont, Tuesday morning, took place from the family home at Woodside on Thursday. Interment was in Holy Cross cemetery, Menlo Park.

Mr. Neuman was one of the best known young men on the peninsula. He comes from an old pioneer family of Woodside at which place he was born 43 years ago. For over a year he had been in ill health, but his condition did not become critical until about two months ago when he suffered a general break-down. He was an active, energetic man with large business cares that weighed upon him heavily. Mr. Neuman was a good businessman, well-liked by all for his fairness in business dealings.

Neuman leaves a widow, Mrs. Clara C. Neuman, but no children. He was a son of the late Andrew and Mary Neuman, pioneers of the Woodside section, and leaves the following brothers and sisters:

Arthur E., James V., and Grover B. Neuman, Mrs. Lillian Dobble and Mrs. Nanette Sanderson.

With his brothers, Al Neuman conducted Neuman Brothers' store at Woodside for many years. He was very popular in Woodside and Redwood City and his death came as a great shock to a large circle of his friends as well as to members of the bereaved family.

The following old-time friends of the deceased acted as pall bearers:

Mr. Kahn left during the week with his friends for Washington. He is spoken of as a probable candidate for the United States Senate next year. He will always remember Bonzagni's trout dinner.

SENSATIONAL CHARGES IS FILED AGAINST PROMINENT MEN

Mrs. Mayzelle Ann Thompson McCarthy, the divorced wife of Dr. Charles F. McCarthy, the ear and eye specialist of San Francisco, filed a sensational suit in the superior court on Wednesday afternoon against Judge Buck, Dr. C. F. McCarthy, Archer Kincaid and the Bank of Italy.

She makes sensational charges against the defendants. She seeks to recover the McCarthy home at San Mateo and damages in the sum of $20 000.

The suit comes as an added chapter to previous episodes in the matrimonial differences between Dr. McCarthy and his wife that have caused turmoil.

In her complaint Mrs. McCarthy reviews her five-day imprisonment last month in the county jail by Judge Buck for contempt of court she is alleged to have committed seventeen months ago ,and calls Judge Buck's action "capricious, cruel, arbitrary and unjust."

Mrs. McCarthy charges that when she obtained her divorce from Dr. McCarthy on February 23, 1917, she did not know of the decree or of its provisions in respect of property settlement, as she was changing attorneys at the time, and recites that she had been promised no action would be taken until she had been informed. The court did not inform her of any action, she asserts.

That Judge Buck forced her to sign a document conveying certain property to George W. Hall, brother-in-law of Dr. McCarthy, and trustee of the property, is another allegation made by Mrs. McCarthy in her complaint. She charges that Judge Buck told her she must "sign or go to jail" and that on September 5, 1918, she executed and delivered the document, but that her action was not a "free act and deed, but was extorted from her by coersion and duress."

The Bank of Italy was made a party to the suit because of its purchase of certain property of the McCarthys. The bank filed suit to quiet title and to this sut Mrs. McCarthy filed an answer and cross-complaint.

Those who have followed the case closely ridicule the charge of fraud Everything connected with the famous case has been regular as all the papers in the suit will show.

Judge Buck has simply ordered Mrs. McCarthy to conform to the order and decrees of the trial court.

The now famous divorce suit was heard in the superior court here before Judge Hudner of Hollister sitting for Judge Buck in 1917.

Mrs. McCarthy was granted a divorce. At that time the three parcels of property at San Mateo were divided as follows: C. F. McCarthy received one parcel valued at $4000, Mrs. McCarthy a place worth $11,000 and Geo. W. Hall as trustees for the son, Francis, the McCarthy home valued at $10,000 and the sole property of the doctor's, Mrs. McCarthy held an homestead on the home but this was dissolved with the granting of the divorce.

The deeds were duly signed and delivered. Mrs. McCarthy persisted in living at the McCarthy home, claiming her homestead rights.

Seventeen months ago she was declared in contempt and sentenced to serve five days in jail. This sentence was not pressed by Judge Buck as she had finally vacated the premises. Some time ago Mr. Hall petitioned the court for the sale of his ward's property as it was bringing no revenue. The court granted the request and the home was sold to the Bank of Italy for $10,000. Soon afterwards, Mrs. McCarthy took possession of the property, then the old contempt proceedings were revived and Mrs. McCarthy was compelled to serve her five days in jail two weeks ago. Mrs. McCarthy in her complaint alleges that Judge Buck compelled her to sign the deed transferring the property in trust to George W. Hall for the son. This is not so as the instrument was signed before Ray Griffin in the auditor's office.

Mrs. McCarthy felt her incarceration very keenly and seeks revenge for her humiliation.

Archer Kincaid is simply made a defendant in the suit for no other reason than he was the attorney for Doctor McCarthy in the divorce proceedings.

Not one of Mrs. McCarthy's charges has any foundation in fact, they are scoffed at and ridiculed by all those familiar with the facts.

One of the defendants said yesterday:

"Mrs. McCarthy pleads ignorance of the provisions of the divorce decree which on the face of it is ridiculous. She also alleges in her complaint that Judge Buck gave her five days to answer the suit of the Bank of Italy and then sent her to jail the next day for contempt of court, when as a matter of fact, after sending her to jail, Judge Buck extended the time for making her answer for another five days. This is not mentioned in the complaint. The whole thing is merely an attempt to win public sympathy, which is plainly shown by the way in which the suit was peddled to the public press many hours before it was filed. Mrs. McCarthy must not think she can escape the due process of law simply because she is a woman."

LOUIS MARTIN BEFORE COURT

Louis Martin, charged with a statutory crime committed at Pescadero on August 25 last, will plead to the charge this morning in the superior court. Judge Buck appointed John F. Groene to defend the prisoner.

GEORGE COLLINS FACES COURT

George Collins, aged 21 years who is charged with aiding and abetting a chauffeur of the George Roos place at Hillsborough in carting away a large quantity of liquor and selling it to a saloon man at Colma, was admitted to probation by Judge Buck in the superior court on Thursday afternoon for a period of one year. The crime was alleged to have been committed on August 25 last. Mr. Martin, son of the late ex-chief of police of San Francisco, made a strong plea for the boy saying that he was staying at his residence at Burlingame and pledging himself to look after the youth. Martin laid stress upon the fact that the boy was left to his own resources at the age of 11 years his parents having died. He was thrown upon the world at a tender age and this was the first time he was in any difficulty. The court agreed to give an opportunity to make good and admitted the youth to probation.

ANOTHER SERIOUS AUTOMOBILE ACCIDENT ON HIGHWAY THURSDAY

There was a serious automobile accident on the highway opposite the residence of R. F. Chilcott late Thursday evening.

Mr. Ames was on his way to the city and Mr. Newall was going south. The latter tried to avoid a truck on the road and in doing so shied into the machine driven by Ames. The occupants escaped uninjured but the machines were badly demolished. A peculiar circumstance connected with the affair was that Ames on that very morning had his automobile insured for the full amount.

LAWRENCE McCARTY AND GORDON TESCHER CHARGED WITH MURDER

Lawrence McCarty, Gordon Tescher and John Helm, charged with the murder of M. J. Needham on a lonely road near Baden on October 28, were up for arraignment in the superior court Thursday afternoon.

Helm pleaded not guilty. The court set this morning as the time for him to plead. Stafford and Stafford of San Francisco appeared as the attorneys for the accused man. The other two men will plead on December 11. They were represented by Attorney Christensen of San Francisco. Helms' father will be here today from Salt Lake City to look after the interests of his wayward boy.

ASKED TO BE REMOVED AS ADMINISTRATOR OF ESTATE

Matthew Callan, the Colma land owner and politician, was before Judge Buck Thursday to show cause why he should not be removed as adminstrator of the estates of his parents, M. Callan and Mary Callan. The latter died in 1909 and Mr. Callan passed away last March. The court asked Callan why he did not pay the funeral expenses of his mother. Callan said there was no money in the estate and he could not get much funds from the real property, that he was unable to secure money to pay their debts. Judge Buck gave Callan until January 3 ,1920, to settle the affairs of the estate. The real property of the estate is valued at about $6000.

THE FINANCIAL SITUATION

Hitherto, production has depended on finance. Whenever operations have been properly financed there have been workers to produce. So far as this country is concerned almost anything which shows reasonable expectation of profit can be financed. The difficulty is with the labor involved in production. Labor generally is of the opinion that its share of the profits of production should be larger than heretofore, but does not assert any willingness to share the risks. The assumption is that all production is profitable which is not true. So far as we produce for export, and except as protection is given by import duties or freight rates which are their equivalent, for home consumption, we must produce in competition with the world, and the wages which can be paid and the dividends earned cannot be known until competition is tried out. Capital generally is disposed to produce to the utmost limit at current rates of wages if assured of the cordial support of workers in producing the highest output per man possible with normal, but not undue strain upon workers. It is believed that the disposition of the majority of workers is such that an agreement fair to all might be quite easily reached. Unfortunately, there is an active radical element among the workers, largely of foreign birth or recent extraction, which openly advocates confiscation of capital, the displacement of experienced managers and the substitution of committees of workers, and the accomplishment of these purposes by a propaganda of terrorism and the defiance of all laws. This element is believed to be a small but exceedingly aggressive minority, as usual, the conservative and reasonable majority is silent. The outcome will depend on the vigor with which the constituted authorities enforce statute law and the effectiveness with which workers who wish to work assert themselves within their own organizations. Pending the adjustment of this fundamental situation, the business of the country is likely to remain in its present rather unsatisfactory condition. With any fair adjustment heartily accepted, prices and wages would soon adjust themselves at some level and we should enter upon a period of great prosperity for all. It is our belief that in the end common sense will effectively assert itself.

CONGRESS ONLY CAN MAKE A DECLARATION OF WAR

No barrier to the ratification of a treaty pledging the United States to participate in any future war between France and Germany need be mentioned beyond the constitution of the United States. That instrument places the power of declaring war exclusively in he hands of Congress, and this government cannot constitutionally enter into any engagement to go to war not specifically made conditional upon the action of Congress at the time war must be declared. This is so clearly settled a proposition that it seems surprising anyone would question it. If the late war had been carried to a military decision, as it should have been, the menace of future German attacks upon France would have been permanently destroyed. France and England should not have consented to a permanent termination of the war at a time when General Foch was in position to show the German army that it was vanquished and the German people that they were a defeated people. A peace considered a negotiated peace by the German people has revived the desire to continue the struggle, especially in view of the fact that the territorial and economic terms imposed were those a conquered people might have anticipated. The United States could not view with unconcern a revival of the German military peril, especially since this country has taken part in a war against Germany which insures the German people's ill will for many years to come. Were France to be attacked and vanquished, the United States would be about next on the list for trouble. Morally speaking, the American people would regard such an attack as a renewal of the war. But this country cannot be committed to war except by the voice of Congress. Any treaty negotiated in violation of that stubborn fact can have no validity under out American Constitution.

LOOK WELL TO YOUR BALLOT

If you elect a man because you think he will be honest towards your class— capitalists, farmers, laborers—and if you are indifferent as to whether he is honest towards other people, you can make up your minds absolutely that he will betray you if he gets the chance. You cannot afford not to have a man honest all the way through, because if he is not, you do not know quite where the breaking down will come.—Theodore Roosevelt.

PRESIDENT DELIVERS ABLE MESSAGE TO CONGRESS

The message of President Wilson to congress is an able, patriotic document that should be read carefully by every citizen. Aside from its splendid literary merit it contains good common sense and will be accounted one of Mr. Wilson's ablest papers.

THE SUPERVISORS HOLD MEETING

The board of supervisors met in regular session Monday, December 1, 1919, at 10 a. m., there being present John MacBain, presiding; T. L. Hickey, W. H. Brown, Jos. M. Francis and Dr. C. V. Thompson.

County Horticultural Commissioner H. E. Woodworth submitted his report, showing summary of routine work for his office during the month of October ,as follows:

Number of shipments fumigated, seven; number of trees, plants, shrubs inspected, 25,945; number of interstate shipments inspected, 16; number of shipments certified for shipment, 59; number ranches visited assistance and supervision given in squirrel work, 43; number packages condemned under standardization laws (12 boxes being disposed of by court order) 45.

J. R. Eubanks, superintendent of the county farm and hospital, submitted his report for the month of October, 1919, showing that he had cared for 57 inmates, five of whom had been discharged.

The bid of the Pacific Gas and Electric company for furnishing electricity for the Beresford lighting district for the next four years at the same rate as had under the contract just expired, was received and this being the only bid received, the contract was awarded the above company, on motion of Brown, seconded by Hickey

The following bids were received and read for purchasing the bonds of the Visitacion Valley school district in the sum of $23,000:

Girvin & Miller, San Francisco, $169.50 premium.

Blackenhorn, Hunter, Dulin Company, Los Angeles, $78.00 premium.

Bank of Italy, San Francisco, $108.00.

Lumberman's Trust Company, San Francisco, $94.30.

McDonnell & Co., San Francisco, $230.00.

The bid of McDonnell & Company being the highest offered, the bonds were sold to that firm, on motion of Hickey, seconded by Francis.

County Tax Collector A. McSweeney submitted an affidavit, showing an erroneous assessment against John Ellison, covering two lots in the Crocker estate tract in the First town ship. On the recommendation of McSweeney and on motion of Brown, seconded by Francis, the county auditor was directed to cancel the erroneous assessment.

A communication was received from Attorney Kirkbride and Gordon of San Mateo, enclosing a petition signed by Thomas J. Brady, president of the San Mateo Park and Boulevard Commission and by R. Campbell, commissioner of streets for that city, asking the board's permission to remove a large oak tree on the State Highway, between Third and Fifth avenues in San Mateo, one half of which, according to the petition, stands on the county highway and one half on the city street. The petition stated that the tree would be removed at the expense of the City of San Mateo and further that it was dangerous to travel on the highway and that many complaints had been registered against it by motorists and others.

The supervisors, while realizing the urgency of having the obstruction removed, it was decided on motion of Brown, seconded by Francis, to refer the communication to Mrs. Nash, the clerk, for her to look up an ordinance adopted by the city trustees of San Mateo at the time the county was given permission to construct the highway and see what the conditions were in regard to the county's responsibility.

A communication was received from County Purchasing Agent E. H. Werder, enclosing a check in the sum of $11, covering a rebate on the premium for the insurance carried by the county for former Traffic Officer M. F. Brown. The communication was received, on motion of Brown, seconded by Francis, and the money was ordered turned over to the county treasurer.

Chairman MacBain addressed the board in the matter of indigent persons coming from outside places and receiving aid from the county. He recited several instances of where families had come here recently and were being taken care of by the Social Service Commission. What he would like to know, he said, if there is not some law covering the time that persons must be residents of the county before they are entitled to assistance. Following considerable discussion, the matter was referred to District Attorney Swart, on motion of Hickey, seconded by Thompson, for a written opinion.

Supervisor Hickey of the First township reported that he had taken up with the officials of the Southern Pacific company the matter of the claim of the latter for the installation of a warning bell at Holy Cross Cemetery crossing, which claim is now being held up by the board on account of it being considered too excessive. Supervisor Hickey said he informed the railroad officials of the board's position in the matter and the officials said they would investigate the situation.

On motion of Francis seconded by Brown, Tax Collector McSweeney was instructed to refund the sum of $100 to R. C. Power of Halfmoon Bay, the amount representing money that had been paid by the latter to the tax collector for a saloon license on the coastside, said license never being used.

County Assessor D. P. Flynn addressed the board relative to encouraging owners of automobiles living in San Mateo county to register their machines from the county, so that the county could get the benefit of the refund allowed by the State at the end of the year from this revenue. Flynn stated that many of the county residents, who have their business offices in San Francisco made a practice of having their cars registered from the latter place, all of which worked an injustice and meant a loss to San Mateo county. The newspapers of the county were asked to give the matter the necessary publicity in the hopes of getting all the San Mateo county owners of automobiles to register from this county.

Supervisor Brown called the board's attention to the wanton destrucion of trees, especially red berry trees, in the county by motorists and others. He said the way these trees were being destroyed at the present time, would result in their total elimination in a few years. District Attorney Swart to whom the matter was referred, said he believed that an ordinance could be drafted which would make it a misdemeanor for persons to take berries or flowers from property in the county without a written permit from the owners. The district attorney said he would look further into the question.

District Attorney Swart presented an ordinance he had drafted, limiting the weight of loads, including the weight of the vehicle that might be carried over certain roads in the different districts of the county to seven tons. The ordinance, showing the roads that are affected and the penalties for violators of the ordinance were also presented.

The ordinance was read by the district attorney, was adopted, on motion of Hickey, seconded by MacBain, Supervisors Hickey, Brown and MacBain voting "yes" on roll call and Supervisor Thompson voting "no", Supervisor Francis having been excused from the meeting a short time before.

In connection with the adoption of the ordinance, District Attorney Swart suggested that steps be taken without delay to have large signs placed in conspicuous places on all the roads affected by the ordinance, calling attention to the maximum limit allowed by the new law.

SAN CARLOS NOTES

The celebration of the ninth birthday of the little Miss Lillian Fourcher at the R. P. Hurlbut apartments proved a most delightful and epichol event in the lives of the little people of San Carlos; for it was truly an ideal juvenile party, like a fairy tale taken from the pages of life as the little tots ruled supreme and the little queen of the day as like Solomon in all of his glory. The numeral nine in keeping with the young Miss' birth year was very much in evidence. The banquet board spread upon the spacious patio of the Hurlbut home, was quite in keeping with the surrounding decorations, and gave an elfin and fairy like appearance; the birthday cake, a wonder in the eyes of the little ones, its nine candles blazing their welcome and casting their glorious reflection upon nine lucious and tempting pink marshmallows, the whole being surrounded by tiny and delicate chrysanthemums and the entire scene being reflected and duplicated in a large mirror made a most impressive and happy appearance. Including the little hostess there were nine be-ribboned and frilled little Misses who sat at the banquet board on chairs which bore a big pink bow, and from behind a ribbon which held him shily, peeked a miscevious appearing kewpie, much to the delight of the young suffragettes. After they had feasted to their fill then came the opening of the packages and boxes which held the various beautiful little gifts which had been borne to the little lady as tokens of the esteem and affection of her little friends and playmates. After this the many games which they heartily enjoyed until, all too soon, the time arrived for them to be sent home to their mamas. Those privileged to partake of the little Miss' hospitality and good cheer were: The Misses Edith Quinn, Marvin Cowgill, Arlene Stewart, Lois May Odgers, Arline Dennery, Virginia Gaspar, Marian Conklin and Corinne Marchant.

Mrs. C. M. Hammel enjoyed Thanksgiving turkey with friends in San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Babcock Sr., are up from Riverside for a few days visit with Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Babcock Jr. at the Powers' apartments.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest West and their children of San Francisco were here over the Turkey holiday as guests of Mrs. West's parents the Jno. V. Clarks.

Mail is often received at the post office here addressed "Mr. and Mrs. Jones," without any handle attached, leaving it to the enterprising postmaster to try all the Jones families until he has located the one for which the missive was intended.

There isn't any great danger that San Carlos will remain many nights without the full complement of lights to which we are entitled and for which we pay our good money to the light company. When one burns out the mayor sicks every kicker on to the manager at Redwood City by telephone, and if the trouble shooter isn't right at hand the manager will come and make the repairs himself rather than be kept busy at the telephone.

Sam E. Schooley, Geo. F. Walker and Mrs. Mary Johnson the committee on committees of the San Carlos Community Club met last Tuesday night at the school house and made their appointments which they will announce at the next regular meeting of the Society, December 10th.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Haddon of New York City who are enjoying a winter tour of California and other western states were guests of their friends the Hosmer's during last week.

Mrs. Arthur E. Cooley, (nee Ethel McLean) was down from San Francisco to enjoy turkey with her aunt, Mrs. Virginia A. Lord.

Dr. Dranzy A. Jones left last Sunday evening on the Lark for old Mexico where he will take his chances with President Carranza and Villa for the next six weeks while looking after mining interests.

At the reunion, which is an annual event at the Farnham home, were Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Jewett of Berkeley; Mr. and Mrs. Elo Burr and five children, of Cherry Lind, Hayward; the Misses A. and C. Gorrill of Piedmont; Messrs. H. and P. and Miss H. Jewett of Bakersfield.

The estate consists of property in Lomita Park valued at $500. Mrs. Canning is the sole legatee under the terms of the will. The heirs at law are the petitioner and three children. Mrs. Canning has alos applied for letters of administration upon the estate of her mother, Emily B. Styles, who died at Lomita Park in September 1916. The estate is worth $1000. WANTS CHANGE OF NAME

John George Pantazopulos of San Mateo has petitioned the superior court for a change of name to John George Pantages, the name by which the family is known for many years. The applicant was born in Greece and for some years has been engaged in business with his brother at San Mateo.

LARGE SALE OF LAND FOR SUBDIVISION PURPOSES

Several large sales of land, for subdivision purposes, in the La Honda district, have just been negotiated by The University Realty company, one of the most important of which consists of a considerable portion of the George Pope estate, along the main boulevard at the junction of Alpine Creek and Pescadero Road, comprising about forty acres.

The latter is lovely virgin timber property lying along both sides of La Honda Creek and along the Alpine and San Gregorio Creeks. The land is very finely wooded and has been the objective of campers and weekend place seekers for fifty years.

The purchasers are Morris Woodhams and W. R. Bartley who are making active plans for the subdivision and development of their newly acquired holding. Not the least point of interest in connection with this sale is the fact that Mr. Woodhams was raised on the ranch of which this land is a portion, inheriting with his brothers the entire estate from his father who was the original patentee from the United States government. The Woodhams family sold this estate through The University Realty company in 1912 to Mr. Geo. A. Pope, the millionaire lumber man of San Francisco, who has developed the ranch into a magnificent estate.

Another beautiful area, just disposed of, consists of about 100 acres of land lying upon both sides of the boulevard and San Gregorio Creek. This is being sold by The Tacoma Land company to R. W. Krobitzsch, the owner of Troutmere. This property is also beautifully wooded and is bought to be subdivided into weekend places, the demand for which during the past year has been very great.

A third sale is that of Miss L. M. Peters' 2 acres adjacent to The Tacoma Land company's holding and which is also acquired by R. W. Krobiszsch for use in connection with his trout farm and subdivision.

Supervisor John MacBain, is doing some important road work along the Alpin road which has become necessary because of the development of a number of places following the sale of lots in the Alpine Creek tract along the Alpin Road.

LIFE ESTATE OF JOHN O'CONNOR TO TERMINATE

Alice M. Lowe, through her attorney, Archer Kincaid, has petitioned the superior court to terminate the life estate of John O'Connor to a certain parcel of property in the Diller Addition, Redwood City. Mr. O'Connor and his wife deeded the property to their daughter, Mrs. Alice M. Lowe in 1908, holding a life interest in it. Mrs. O'Connor passed away some years ago and Mr. O'Connor died on October 8, 1919.

PYTHIAN KNIGHTS MAY RETURN TO REDWOOD CITY

Much to the delight and satisfaction of John E. Cowgill, who has been a Pythian enthusiast since he first joined that peerless organization of Friendship, Charity and Benevolence, and of unadulterated Americanism away back in old Kentucky in 1890, the old Redwood Lodge, No. 82 at San Mateo has been experiencing a great revival in the matter of new members and the warmth of fraternal enthusiasm among the entire membeship, and particularly among the Pythian veterans who wear their veterans' jewels with a great deal of pleasure and pardonable pride. There have been initiations in the ranks of Page, Esquire or Knight every Monday evening for the past several weeks, and in view of the many new applications which are being received there is every prospect that the initiatory team will be kept busy for some time to come. If the applications from the vicinity of San Carlos, and Redwood City continue to be received in the same ratio as in the past few weeks it will only be a short time until the veterans and members of Redwood City, San Carlos and Belmont will realize their ambition to have old Redwood Lodge No. 82 re-established in Redwood City where they can again drink to the fountain of Pythian brotherhood and fidelity without the great inconvenience and expense of journeying to San Mateo, and they can have the pleasure of seeing their sons and grandsons learn the lesson taught in the matchless friendship of Damon and Pythias. Owing to the growth of the order in San Mateo from among the residents there and in Burlingame the members who are residents there are quite friendly to the idea of re-establishing a neighbor lodge at the county seat as they will be left with a substantial and prosperous lodge after the members from Belmont, San Carlos and Redwood City have transferred to the latter place. With a Past Grand Chancellor of the state in the person of Mr. M. J. Knox and such Pythian veterans as Messrs. Ludwig Werder, P. P. Chamberlain, Geo. W. Winter, Frank Yount, Jas. V. Swift, Doctors J. E. Chapin and J. P. Dykes, R. M. and his two sons, F. J. and H. M. Zimmerman, B. R. Thiele and J. E. Cowgill and the younger members located in Redwood City, San Carlos and Belmont it should not be long until old Redwood Lodge No. 82 can be re-established in some castle hall in the city of her birth; and that while the old veterans, some of whom are charter members, of Redwood Lodge, are still with us with their words of counsel and of cheer.

All members in this vicinity are urgently requested to be with us on next Monday evening, and visiting brothers are cordially invited to attend as there will be work in the rank of Esquire; and on the following Monday evening, December 15th there will be work in both the Page and Esquire ranks. No town the size of Redwood should be without such an institution as that of a lodge of Knights of Pythias.
